

50 Alternative Mystery of the Rosary

50 Alternative Mystery of the Rosary from the life of Jesus and Mary.

The Immaculate conception of the Virgin Mary in her mother's womb. Hail Mary...

The birth of the Virgin Mary. Hail Mary...

When Mary entered the temple, she studied the Scriptures and prayed, while being shaped by the Holy Spirit. Hail Mary...

When Mary offered her virginity to God and when she was betrothed to Joseph. Hail Mary...

When the angel Gabriel announced to Mary that she was to be the mother of God and with her 'yes', Jesus was conceived in her pure womb. Hail Mary...

When Mary went to visit and help Elizabeth. Hail Mary...

When the angel Gabriel announced to Joseph the work of the Holy Spirit in Mary. Hail Mary...

When Mary carried Jesus in her womb for nine months and when they made their difficult journey to Bethlehem. Hail Mary...

When Jesus was born in poverty in a cave in Bethlehem and the shepherds and the Magi came to visit him. Hail Mary...

When Mary and Joseph presented their son Jesus in the temple. Hail Mary...

When the Holy Family had to flee to Egypt - to avoid the destruction of the innocent babies - and their return back to Nazareth and when they raised their Son Jesus in the love and fear of God.

When our Lord Jesus was praying and meditating on the Word of God, and he disputed it with the doctors in the temple after he had been without his parents for three days.

When our Lord Jesus was baptized by John the Baptist in the Jordan, who claimed to be the Lamb of God.

When our Lord Jesus was tormented by the devil in the desert for forty days and when he announced that the kingdom of God had arrived and encouraged people to repent.

When our Lord Jesus was praying in secluded places and when he chose twelve disciples

When our Lord Jesus made the first sign at the wedding of Cana on the order of his mother and the disciples believed in him.

When our Lord Jesus preached and spoke with authority and many men and women followed him but he was not welcomed by his own people, by his relatives, by the Samaritans, by some pagans and by the majority of the religious leaders of his time.

When our Lord Jesus cast out the devils from many people who claimed to be the Son of God and when he healed many people, both Jews and pagans, from all kinds of diseases.

When our Lord Jesus invited us to go to him so that he could comfort us, he told us that he is the Shepherd and we are his sheep and he showed us that he himself seeks out sinners, defends them and forgives their sins with the power of God.

When our Lord Jesus said that the blessed are those who listen to the Word of God and observe it. His mother Mary sought to see him and he said that anyone who does the Father's will (as she did) will be his brother, sister and mother. He spoke and taught about the Kingdom of God, mostly using the parables he explained to the disciples and when he taught us the Lord's prayer.

When our Lord Jesus stated that he is the living Bread that came down from Heaven... the true Bread that the Father gives us and that whoever eats it will live forever. He also said that he is the Light of the world and the living Water that quenches thirst.

When our Lord Jesus rebuked the Pharisees, the scribes, the high priests, the wise men of the law and the Seducers. He announced how he would be rejected and handed over to sinners who would kill him and after three days he would rise from the dead.

When our Lord Jesus fed five thousand people from a few fish and bread, he walked on the water and silenced the storm.

When our Lord Jesus transfigured himself on Mount Tabor in front of his beloved disciples.

When our Lord Jesus raised from the dead the son of the widow of Nain, the daughter of Jairus and Lazarus.

When our Lord Jesus spoke in favor of John the Baptist and when he made Peter the head of the Church and sent his disciples to proclaim that the Kingdom of God has arrived and to heal from sickness in His name and he rejoiced and praised the God for revealing the mysteries of the kingdom to the little ones.

When our Lord Jesus blessed the little children and said that the Kingdom of Heaven is theirs and to who is like them.

When our Lord Jesus warned against worry and excessive concern, judgment on others, hypocrisy, scandals, divorce, the leaven of the Pharisees and Herod, spiritual blindness, anger, adultery, swearing, revenge and greed and he told us that we should only fear the enemy of our soul.

When our Lord Jesus spoke in favor of faith and trust in Him, love in a special way towards enemies, forgiveness, fasting, charity, good deeds, prayer persevering and vigil, faithfulness, wisdom, humility and poverty in spirit and told us that we should rejoice when we are persecuted because of Him because our reward will be great in heaven.

When our Lord Jesus made his messianic entrance in Jerusalem. He said that his hour to be glorified had arrived, and that for this hour he had come and given glory to God his Father.

When our Lord Jesus entered the temple, and began to drive out the sellers and buyers, he overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who sold doves because they had made his Father's house a house of business.

When our Lord Jesus was asked many questions by the religious leaders of his time who tried to trap him to see if they could catch him in a word. With his answers he would shut their mouths.

When our Lord Jesus wept in Jerusalem, announced the destruction of the temple, the persecution of the disciples and his second coming at the end of time. When the leaders conspired against our him and Judas betrayed him.

When our Lord Jesus washed the feet of the disciples and announced the betrayal of Judas and the rejection of Peter.

When our Lord Jesus gave us a new commandment to love one another as He loved us and He prayed for the disciples to be united with Him and with each other.

When our Lord Jesus declared that he is the Way, the Truth and the Life, the true Vine and that he conquered the world.

When our Lord Jesus instituted the Sacrament of the Eucharist and the Priesthood.

When our Lord Jesus prayed in the Garden of Gethsemane and his sweat became like great drops of blood.

When our Lord Jesus was betrayed and arrested, they took him before the council of the Sanhedrin, he was questioned by the high priest and rejected by Peter. When they took him before Herod who ridiculed him and before Pilate who sentenced him to death after scourging him.

When our Lord Jesus was humiliated, mocked and crowned with a crown of thorns by the Roman soldiers.

When our Lord Jesus carried the cross from Pilate to Calvary where he fell several times, met his mother, Veronica and the women of Jerusalem and was helped by Simon the Cyrene.

When our Lord Jesus was stripped of his clothes, nailed to the cross for three hours of agony during which he forgave those who crucified him, he promised paradise to the thief who repented, he gave John the disciple into the hands of his mother and her in his hands, he asked God why he has left him, was thirsty, said that everything was finished and before he died, he left his soul in the hands of God his Father.

When the side of our Lord Jesus was pierced with a spear, his body was taken down from the cross and placed in his mother's bosom and when they buried him in a new tomb.

When our Lord Jesus rose from the dead as he had said and showed himself to Mary of Magdala who kept crying near the tomb and to some women who had gone to anoint him.

When our Lord Jesus showed himself to the disciples who were scared and locked up and to two disciples who were going to Emmaus and rebuked them for their lack of faith, especially Thomas. He also appeared to seven disciples by the sea, asked Peter if they loved him and asked him to feed his flock.

When our Lord Jesus gave the mission to the apostles, he ordered them to stay in Jerusalem until he baptizes them with the Holy Spirit and then ascended to heaven.

When Jesus sent the Holy Spirit on the apostles while they were gathered praying together with Mary as they were used to do.

When the apostles were evangelizing and celebrating the Eucharist and Mary used to receive her Son through Communion. When she looked forward to being reunited with her Son and until she did this, she continued to pray and serve her children in the first Christian communities.

When Mary was taken up to heaven in body and soul and united with her glorious Son forever.

When our Mary was crowned Queen of heaven and earth by the Holy Trinity, exalted above all the choirs of angels and advocate for us sinners.